

New Research in Sanitation and Social Design for International Development

When: Friday the 17th of June at 5pm

Where: Master of Arts in Design Sammlung, 4th Floor, 4.K16, Toni Areal, Pfingstweidstrasse 94, 8005 Zürich

What: An inspiring evening of presentations and discussion on the latest research in Sanitation and Social Design. The evening focuses on research from EAWAG and ZHdK that contributes to international development.

4:30pm Welcome drinks

5:00pm Introduction and ZHdK research updates from Prof. Michael Krohn, Head of the Master of Arts in Design program and the Design for Social Impact Research Project.

5:10pm Research updates on research projects at the EAWAG Department of Sanitation, Water and Solid Waste for Development (Sandec), presented by Head of Department Dr. Christoph Lüthi.

5:20pm Presentation of ZHdK project "PooPac" a bioactive paper bag for collecting and transporting human faeces in urban container based sanitation, presented by student in MA Design Specialisation Product, Joshua Urieli.

5:40pm Tour around the ZHdK design students degree show by Joshua Urieli.

6:00pm Apéro

